SOLID SILVER ORE FOUND

RAWHIDE, Nov. 4 .- Solid silver ore so pure it can be whittled with a penknife has been struck on the Dromiack lease of the Queen ground. The ledge, so far encountered, is three feet wide and has every indication of making a large ore body.

Fourteen inches next to the foot wall is sacked as it comes from the ledge, this ore will run better than $400 per ton. Next to the hanging wall is a small stringer that assays very high in gold. The company, which is composed of well known mining men from Reno and Rawhide, are highly elated over the new

Wednesday about twenty sacks of the picked specimens had been sacked, ready for shipment. The ore was struck almost at grass roots as an open cut was run into the hill in order that the ledge could be cut Where the ore was encountered the depth was not more than fourteen feet from the surface. Mark Bradshaw, who is operating the leasehold is the general manager and secretary of the company.
